

Business Analytics & Reporting

New Incentives to train more financial professionals through the BAR methodologies

Why Provide Incentives?

- In line with Singapore Government's initiative to train Singaporeans with skills that could help them in their workplace.
- BAR course has transformed the way thousands of organizations automate their reporting.
- ICPAS plans to train more financial professionals with the use of the BAR techniques in their workplace
- Incentives:
 - Complete the course in a shorter time
 - Lower course fee
 - Flexibility in course schedule including weekend courses
- No compromise on content and quality assured
